THEATRICAL OFFERINGS

'GEMS FROM THE OPERAS' WILL BE OFFERING OF BEVANI FOR TONIGHT

But two more performances of grand opera and then the local season of the Bevni Grand Opera Company is at an end. Tonight "Gems from the Operas" will provide the feast of music; tomorrow night, the last of the season, "The Barber of Seville" will be the offering.

Tonight's program has been specially selected to allow each of the artists to appear in the role in which he or she has made the best impression in Honolulu.
Tonight's program:

First part.
Act 1 of "I Pagliacci"
With Mme. Vergeri and Srs. Giovacchini, Sachetti and Puccini Second part.
(1) "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice" From "Samson et Delila" (by C.
Saint-Saens)

Mme. Holmes
(2) "O Paradiso"
From "L'Africaine" (by Meyerbeer)
Sr. Cavadore
(3) "Ab. Fors, E. Lui" From "Traviata" (by Verdi)
Mme. Sanborne
(4) "Lucia"
2nd Scene of Act II, including Sextette Mmes. Sanborne and Vainwright, and Srs. Sachetti, Cavadore, Giovacchini and Bonziglia.
(5) "Se. Tu M'Amassi" (by Luigi Danza)
Sr. Puccini
(6) "La Forza Destino"
From the Romanza "Pace, Mio Dio" Mme. Vergeri
(7) Grand finale of the 2nd Act of "Aida," with the entire ensemble
"Buono Sera"

'THREE WEEKS' SOON TO END RUN

Although "Three Weeks" is drawing to the end of its successful run at the Popular theater, and immense audiences have marked every performance, matinee and night, Manager Bredhoff's house was packed to the doors again last night. There seems to be something subtle and alluring about this play which grips the public and holds fast. While the story of the play fairly teems with sensational emotions and passionate love scenes, in themselves of a nature which appeals strongly to the emotions, the magnificent staging of the piece and the splendid acting of Miss Travers and the role of the temperamental queen, and of Mahlon Hamilton as Paul is a strong drawing card. Taken altogether, no love story that has appeared in the "movies" in Honolulu for a long time is presented as is "Three Weeks."

"Three Weeks" will continue at the Popular for the remainder of the week, with matinee daily, and next week, beginning on Monday, a great picture of the European war, showing the German side of the conflict, will be the attraction. Manager Bredhoff announces that the pictures are authentic and that they have the personal endorsement of Kaiser Wilhelm. They are said to be the most elaborate pictures of the German phase of the conflict ever brought to the United States.

NEWSPAPER STORY EMPIRE FEATURE

Frances Moyer and Raymond Makee will be found to add a large share to the effectiveness of a dramatization of a great newspaper story, a headliner at the Empire theater today. The newspaper game has been drawn upon for an original plot in the production of the two-part picture "Reporter Jimmy Intervenes." The story deals with a wideawake young fellow who not only defeats the scheme of dishonest politicians bent on looting a municipal treasury, but also wins a girl in the bargain. The tale centers around life in a metropolitan city.

Two new stars will be introduced in the presentation of Epes Sargeant's great farce, "He Woke up in Time." There is a clever comedy element in the play. Raymond Stewart and Frank Griffiths take characters representing tramps. An express robbery is a motive for a number of thrilling situations.

Francis X. Bushman, a general favorite, has a leading role in "The Motor Buccaneer." In its dramatized form the production has risen to instant success on the mainland. As a play it is effective and appealing.

A first-class comedy, "Stopping the Limited," is a railroad story produced with a delightful dash of satire. It is well staged and acted.

'CABIRIA' COMING TO BIJOU

"Cabiria," heralded as the "world's greatest photo-spectacle," will be shown at the Bijou theater for a limited engagement, commencing next Saturday night. The picture tells in vivid manner of the rise and fall of the Roman and Carthaginian empires and throughout the entire 12 reels there runs a story of love and faithfulness that is not excelled in the more emotional photo-play offerings.

From a historical standpoint "Cabiria" has proved a wonderful addition to the world's picture library. Says the New York World: "The drama dealing with the death struggle between Rome and Carthage is as real as realism can make it."

During the engagement of "Cabiria" at the Bijou theater it is proposed to give special matinee performances at Ye Liberty theater each Monday, Tuesday, Friday and Saturday. The matinees of the regular Ye Liberty bill will be on Wednesday and Thursday.

"Cabiria" has been a $2 attraction at the leading theaters on the mainland, playing to capacity houses. This price has been cut in four by the management of the Bijou theater.

BIG BILL PACKS YE LIBERTY

Another big double bill, with the initial episode of a new and what promises to be a highly entertaining series, is proving a good drawing card at Ye Liberty theater for the first half of the present week. Incidentally tonight is the final night of this bill, as an entire change of program is effective tomorrow evening.

The bill for tonight opens with an interesting Pathé Weekly, brimful of world's news in picture form. Following is the first episode of the "Ex-plots of Elaine," a serial based on the Craig Kennedy detective stories.

The next number on this excellent bill is "The Circus Man," a five-reel feature in which Theodore Roberts appears in the leading role. Another big feature is the closing number, Laura Sawyer appearing in "One of Millions," a Dyreda art feature based upon the present war.

A combination Lucky-Belasco feature,
"The Rose of the Rancho," featuring Beattie Barriscale, will be the leading offering for the last half of this week.
